With Sally

We have been away on a vacation and of all the sights we saw, the one that impressed us most was a paper bag turned upside down on a fence post.

The train paused for only a moment and then it sped away into the night, but that sight has remained to haunt our every waking moment.

We have eaten pie from Geneva Bakery—luscious and tender—and soft-boiled eggs, smooth and fresh, from Robertson's Egg store in an attempt to solve the problem. But in vain. Round and round in mind goes that always unanswered question—why did some unknown person carefully place a paper bag upside down ovef a fence post?

Did you ever try to figure out a problem to which there was no sensible solution? Now some problems are easy, like what shall we have for supper tonight? There all you have to do is to order some yellow oatmeal from Lucca Ravioli company, stir up a fresh johnny-cake, add some strawberry jam from Belli Grocery and watch your family devour it.

Spicy, home-made doughnuts from the Daly City Creamery, luscious fresh peaches from Westlake Market, pork roast from Farmers Market, or fresh cinammon bread from Waxman's Bakery—we could go on indefinitely.

Then some problems are hard, like how in the world can I ever get the children ready for school again? But even that isn't so bad when you think how many capa-

Shipwrecks Missing

New Zealand has a shipwrecks society and no shipwrecks. It was disclosed by the Shipwrecks Relief society that money is accumulating in the bank for want of disaster. The society obtains its finances from the shipping companies and the harbor boards of this country, all of which make an annual contribution. Year by year the funds grow larger. Now they stand at $80,000 and are safely invested. This has resulted in the society now receiving more than it spends. The position is regarded with satisfaction by local governments, it seems. Mayor Arthur H. Allen of Dunedin has said: "It is gratifying to know this money has been invested in gilt edged securities."

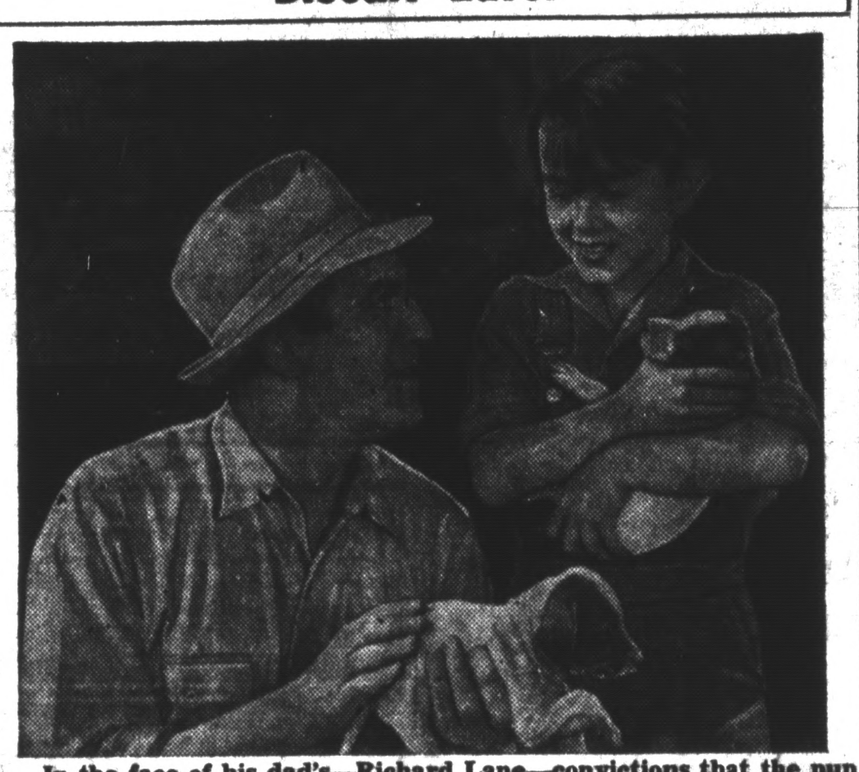

Rugby in England

The great sports of English winters are Rugby football matches when England matches Scotland, Ireland, and Wales. They open with a game which is announced as England vs. The Rest.

Solitary Bird

The pied-bill grebe is a solitary bird that likes to sit on the water among the reeds, but it is such a quick mover that it can dive beneath the water swiftly enough to dodge gun shot fire.

'Biscuit Eater'

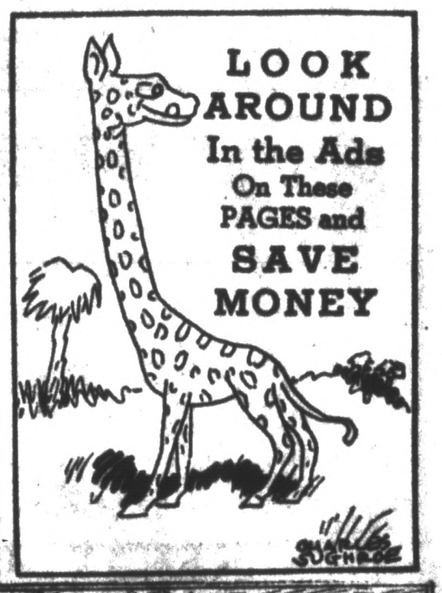

In the face of his dad's—Richard Lane—convictions that the pup is a "biscuit eater," a hunting dog not worth its keep, little Billy Lee pits his own judgment—and eventually supplies amazing supporting testimony. It's all part of the Paramount drama, "The Biscuit Eater," now playing at the Daly City theatre.

Universal Museum Ticket

In Greece the visitor may buy a ticket costing less than a dollar which will entitle him to enter most of the national museums, and also visit the Acropolis and the archeological sites of Athens, Piraeus and Eleusis.

ble merchants are ready to help you. Did you see the "back to school" ad on page 10?

And for school supplies, either Henry Warshawski or Foster's Pharmacy can furnish everything you'll need at the lowest prices. Warshawski also specializes in back-to-school clothing, as does the Daly City Dress Shop. Scuffed shoes are an easy problem to Sam's Shoe Repair.

There is also the matter of your little girl's personal appearance. Why not give her a permanent wave this year? Templeton Beauty Shop, May Swan's Beauty Salon and the Daly City Beauty Shop all have special prices this week.

And for goodness sakes' if she is at that awkward adolescent stage, don't let her be unhappy about it. Send her to Jack Carney's dance studio and watch her blossom out.

By the way, don't forget to send your kiddies to the special matinee at the Daly City theatre on Saturday afternoon. Every youngster in town will be there.

You see all these problems, while difficult, may still be solved without seeing pink giraffes in the night. Like cars, for instance. They're always a problem, but Stan's Standard Service Station will make you forget all your car troubles. Or why not buy a new Willys from Mather Brothers or a new Packard from Peter Venturi?

But a paper bag upside down on a fence post—What did it mean? Was it a sinister warning that the Klu Klux Klan or the Nazis or something were on the march? But no. Our new Zenith radio from Byrne's is absolutely reliable and has reported no agitation in the vicinity of that fence post.

Or did some absent-minded but earnest dry cleaner place that bag there so it would hold its shape? (We don't know whether Beeson Cleaners place bags on fence posts but we do know they're marvelous at keeping things in shape.)

Or was it a clever ruse to hide something? What lay hidden on top of the fence post under that innocent paper sack? A kidnaper's ransom? A scrawled love letter? A workman's lunch to cheer the long night hours?

Alas, we shall never know. That fence post will stand there forever, through the summer suns and the winter snows, with a paper bag on top of it, turned carefully upside down.

p. s. aren't our new $10 words beautiful. For other bargains see the overhead-type doors at H. H. Smith Lumber Yard.

Frog Business

Frogs give every indication of eventually becoming "big business" in the West. One company capitalized at $200,000 has filed articles of incorporation for the opening of 20 frog ranches near Modesto, Calif.

Travelers Blessings

Travelers on ancient highways were often protected by a "blessing" placed upon the road and respected by persons dwelling along the route.

Wrestler to Africa

Wrestler "Whiskers" Blake, six feet seven inches, thin and wiry, known to Canadian mat fans, arrived in Africa for 14 days, but has stayed there three years because he likes it.

Gopher Snake

The gopher snake, so called because it preys on gophers and thus protects crops, is protected by many western farmers.

NEW FURS

Furs are at the fore already in the fast-moving fashion parade even though milady, in all this heat, can scarcely be expected to think seriously of such matters now.

If you're interested, though, coats will be longer, box jackets boxier and shorter this season. And for furred and fur-trimmed suit jackets, the length has been ruled as 32 inches.

Sheared beaver is destined to be immensely popular, while muskrat and caracul hold their own—practical, sturdy and wearable on almost any occasion. Goat and pony are also popular, as well as a number of real and imitation fur trims of the more exotic type, such as tiger, leopard and zebra.

A foxy shorty is this cunnin' box coat modeled by wistful-eyed Harrise Brin, of the CBS airlanes. Red fox is suitable for many occasions. Good even now for an informal visit to a cinema in the evening; good for cocktails; and later, when weather gets cooler, for more regular wear from day to day.

If you must have mink you might try a little evening box coat like this one worn by bewitching Maxine Rascoe, of CBS network's "Aunt Jenny Stories." The front of the coat has a concealed zipper, so should cold winds howl, you can still be warm—and pretty. (Karl Dennis, New York.)

Nobody can wear a little parka better than Audrey Egan, CBS star, with her bronze hair, blue eyes, ready smile. This one is of muskrat with a sealskin lining in the parka hood. One might have felt sorry for the muskrats until one saw the effect on Audrey. If you want the coat, you may have it for less than mink. . .

That's Cricket

Although ordered by his physician not to leave his bed, Gerald Backhouse hopped out, dashed to the Melbourne, Australia, cricket ground and won his heat in the qualifying mile championship event. He returned to bed, stayed there till noon the next day, then started again and won the final.

Civilization Kills

Civilization proved too much for the youth who left the loneliest isle in the world. After less than a year in London he died. Donald Glass was a direct descendant of the William Glass who founded the settlement at Tristan da Cunha, in the South Atlantic, more than a century ago. Donald left a happy isle, where disease is practically unknown, determined to succeed in the great world. He was accepted by the Boy Scouts, who tried to make life for him something like that in the home from which he came, but they failed to consider the germs that afflict civilization. He fell ill and gradually declined.

War Casualties Listed

First casualties of the next war were the hens of Joe Mikulich, and he wants to know what the government is going to do in the way of reparations. While limbering up for Armageddon, if and when it comes, the field artillery of the California National Guard planted an explosive shell in Joe's chicken coop near San Pablo. There was heavy loss of life among the feathered noncombatants, and the survivors, suffering from shell shock, have not laid an egg since.

Journey's End

When the steamship Edina, reputed to be the oldest passenger ship in the world, was making its final trip from Melbourne, Australia, Septimus Dandy, who for 20 years had been its quartermaster, stepped to the bridge to bid the captain farewell, collapsed and died in a few minutes.

BOY-DOG PICTURE HAS GENUINE RING

Out of the picturesque Georgia horse-raising and dog-breeding country comes an exciting, realistic story about the lives of everyday people, in Paramount's "The Biscuit Eater," the new film attraction at the Daly City theatre, which opened last night.

As Southern in atmosphere as is its title, "The Biscuit Eater" takes its name from the tag of dishonor hung on thoroughbred dogs who turn out poorly down Dixie way. Needless to say, "The Biscuit Eater" is the story of a dog. But it is a dog with such an extraordinary history that one of the season's most entertaining and absorbing film tales has been built around him.

With talented, ten-year-old Billy Lee cast in the principal role, "The Biscuit Eater" tells the story of a spunky Georgia boy who takes up a dog the rest of the world has rejected, turns him into a champ of champs after titanic effort, and then is faced with the tragedy of having to choose between his boundless love for his pup and his loyalty to his parents.

Billy, whose father manages a Georgia dog-raising plantation, adopts the "runt" of a thoroughbred litter against the advice of the experts and determines to train him and turn him into a champion. In his campaign he pushes the most discouraging obstacles out of his way, and is not even disheartened when (disgrace of disgraces) his dog turns out to be a "biscuit eater." Billy merely breaks him of this habit—and many another — and before he's through has a blue ribbon winner on his hands!

Billy's triumph is cut short when a Northern millionaire buys the plantation and announces his intention of turning from dogs to horses. A tragic dilemma is reached when the boy realizes that the only way he can convert the Yankee and save his father's livelihood is to make his own hound lose out in a big meet and let his dad's entry take the grand prize.

In the top role, Lee shows that he's not just another "cute kid," but a dramatic actor of feeling and ability. He gets good support in "The Biscuit Eater" from a young newcomer, Cordell Hickman, who plays his pickaninny playmate, as well as from the oldest members of the cast, Helene Millard, Lester Matthews and Richard Lane.

Biscuit Tricks for Easy Summer Meals

A tempting variety with menu tips

• For eating enjoyment and good digestion, serve one hot food at each summer meal, especially if the rest of the meal is a light salad. Make your hot dish substantial too, otherwise the family gets that "all-gone" feeling soon after eating.

Here are tempting and nourishing summer biscuit recipes, with menu tips for each. The biscuits take practically no time to make, it's so easy to mix smooth, creamy Spry. Just look at the variety you can make with these easy recipes.

For extra energy

Remember, foods cooked with pure all-vegetable shortening give quick energy and lasting energy, too—the kind your family needs for summer sports and activities.

Baking Powder Biscuits

2 cups sifted flour — ½ teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons baking powder — 3 tablespoons Spry
⅔ cup milk (about)

Sift flour with baking powder and salt. Cut in Spry until mixture is as fine as meal. Add milk, mixing to a soft dough. Knead lightly 20 seconds. Roll to ⅛-inch thickness. Cut with biscuit cutter and place on baking sheet. Bake in very hot oven (450° F.) 12 minutes. Serve hot with honey or jelly for lunch or supper. Makes 1 dozen biscuits.

Deviled Ham Rolls

Roll dough ¼-inch thick, spread with deviled ham, and roll. Cut in 1-inch pieces; place in Spry-greased muffin pans, and bake in hot oven (425°F.) 15 to 20 minutes. Delicious with potato salad.

Peanut Butter Biscuits

Cut in ⅓ cup peanut butter after cutting in Spry. Add ⅔ cup milk (instead of ⅔ cup) and bake as above. Good with green salads or with vegetable plates.

Cheese-Tomato Quickies

Cut in ¾ cup grated cheese after cutting in Spry. Add ¾ cup tomato juice (instead of milk) and drop on baking sheet. Bake in very hot oven (450°F.) 15 minutes. Try them with cold cuts and potato chips.

(All measurements in these recipes are level)

Kansas City Shakeup

The shakeup of the Kansas City police department has really brought results. Cleanup has extended beyond crime and politics. Now Saturday night baths will be given the —well—here's the story from the beginning. A police captain strolling through a park noticed the fish pond was scummy and the gold fish were mighty dingy. He ordered the water changed and each fish washed every Saturday night in a salt solution to brighten it up a bit.

House Fly Massacre

Pupils of the ninth grade at Tiffin, Ohio, told that every housefly killed now means millions less later in the season, killed 8,226 of the insects in one week. They computed that their victims would have been ancestors of 49,336,000,000,000,000 buzzing, disease-breeding descendants by next fall.

Religious Painter

Luis de Morales, the famous Spanish painter, was called El Divino because of his emotional religious paintings. His favorite subjects, Ecce Homo, Pieta, Christ at the Column and Mater Dolorosa, were repeated many times and often copied.

Cermak Memorial

The Cermak Memorial plaque, in Bayfront park at Miami, bears the following inscription: "I'm glad it was me instead of you." Anton J. Cermak, mayor of Chicago—Born May 9, 1873, Kladno, Czecho-Slovakia—Died March 6, 1933, Miami, Fla. It was here February 15, 1933, that an attempt was made to assassinate Franklin Delano Roosevelt. This shot mortally wounded Anton J. Cermak who then uttered the immortal words quoted above. Dedicated March 6, 1939.

World's Fair Jelly Contest

By BETTY BARCLAY

Bring out the jelly kettle — turn those ripe summer fruits into home-made spreads — and enter plenty of jellies and jams at the first fair that comes along! Anyone who wins a first prize for any kind of jelly or jam at any 1940 fair is invited to enter spreads made with bottled fruit pectin in the New York World's Fair National Jelly Contest. Those who won such prizes during 1939 are also welcome.

First prizes for the best jelly and jam are $100. each. The nation's jelly and jam champions will compete for honors during "Harvest Week End," October 4th and 5th at the New York Fair. All entries must be accompanied by an official entry blank, and mailed not earlier than September 15th, nor later than September 27th.

The rules are as simple and easy-to-follow as your favorite short-boil recipe. Send to the World's Fair Certo Jelly Contest Committee, Flushing, New York, for your copy of contest rules and entry blank.

On The Trail of Bargains With Ocean View Sue

Says Ocean View Sue:

Attention, bookworms: Ocean View Pharmacy and Toggery has a grand circulating library. Have yourself a good time with the latest and most exciting new novels. By the way, don't overlook the 10c novelty tables as you dash in and out. And remember—thirteen is your lucky number; free pair of silk stockings after every twelve.

Loads of bright suggestions for the clever shopper will be found in the Ocean View Service Ad on Page 7. And for real grocery bargains at remarkable prices, take a look at the specials Paul Pesce and Andy have this week.

If you like watermelon—and who doesn't?—the Sure Save Groceteria is the place to buy it. Price is only 1c a pound.

Alemany Market has some of the most tempting-looking beef roasts we've seen in a long time. Why not give your family a really tender piece of meat for dinner tonight?

Largest Boxwood

The largest boxwood in the records of the American Botanical society is located near Salisbury, N. C. It takes 19½ girls to encircle the shrub with outstretched arms.

Strange Street Names

Lisbon in Portugal has some strange street names, including the Street of the Little Englishman, Street of the Mother of War, the Sad Ugly One Street, and the Alley of the Faithful of God.

Milk on the Hoof

In Sicily there is no milk problem for visitors daily see milk delivered "on the hoof." Goats are driven to one's door and their milk is drawn from them before the customer.

Powerful Warship Engines

The U. S. S. Lexington and U. S. S. Saratoga, aircraft carriers, have the most powerful engines ever installed in warships.

Guests Are Welcome

In all Mohammedan countries, hospitality is the strongest instinct, a tenet of religion even, and they have a pretty proverb which, being translated, runs: "A guest is a present from God."

Earth's Only Satellite

The earth's only satellite is the moon which is about 238,000 miles away.

Statue to Anonymous

At Budapest in Hungary is a statue to Anonymous, a notary who wrote a chronicle of Hungarian history, the first page of which having his name was lost; hence the commemoration of an unknown historian.

Cottonmouth Moccasin

The cottonmouth moccasin is a dangerously poisonous snake generally of dark chestnut-brown with some darker barring and with yellowish-white stripes on the head and throat. The common name of this snake refers to the white lining of the mouth, which it is said to display before biting. Cottonmouths may attain a length of four feet. They are not aggressive and most cases of snake bite in which they are involved are due to the reptiles being stepped on.

New State Planned

A new plan has been devised for making a forty-ninth state of New York city, Long island, up-state New York and chunks of Connecticut and New Jersey.

Hillcrest Circle Whist Monday

Prizes of every description, including a large cash award, will be given away to lucky whist players Monday evening. Hillcrest Circle No. 143, United Ancient Order of Druids, today cordially urged the public to attend their big card party, Monday evening, at Masonic hall.

Playing will begin at 8:30 p. m. Arrangements are under the direction of Mrs. Violet Hauptli and Mrs. Clara Poket, who promise a good time for everyone who attends.

Youthful Dancers

Jacqueline and Buddy Peterson, youthful dancers, who are studying with the Jack Carney Dance studio in Daly City. The pair have made many public appearances in the Bay area. The Carney school is held each Saturday morning at Theatre hall.

Cooking Lesson

Left at home to cook his supper while his wife was at the movies, a 28-year-old husband in Prague, Czecho-Slovakia, became so alarmed when the porridge boiled over and filled the kitchen with steam that he rushed to the theater, calling loudly for his mate. The attendants objected to this disturbance of the performance, but the frenzied man threatened them with violence if they interfered. Charged at the police court with disorderly conduct, he was bound over for 12 months.

Soap Nut Tree

Soap nut, the fruit of a handsome tree found throughout India, has been used to wash woolen fabrics, silks and jewelry since ancient times, even in preference to soap. Scientists today have learned to extract the essential matter, saponin, from the nut for use in the manufacture of soapless shampoos, as a foam stabilizer, and as an emulsifying agent for vegetable and essential oils.

Impulses Influence Life

It is much easier to act firmly and bravely under a strong impulse than it is to restrain an impulse when called upon to do so. Of all the battles of life there is not one that requires so much real courage as that silent battle with self, which every dutiful person finds it frequently necessary to wage.

Jack of All Trades

Darius L. Martin, who died at Deer Island, N. B., at the age of 91, was a jack of all trades and master of each. His diversified work included undertaking, casket-making, carpentry, cabinet-making, painting, veterinary surgery and farming. He was also a justice of the peace.

First School Sports

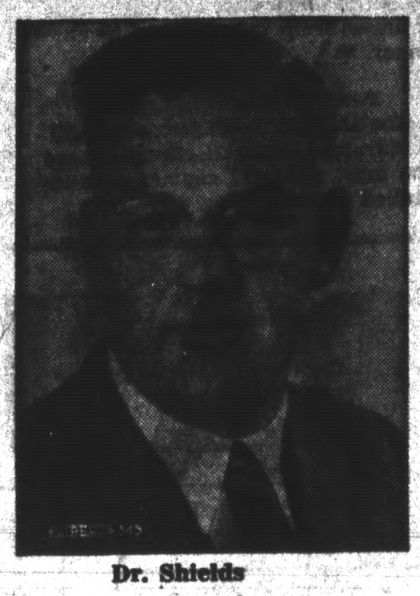

The first regularly organized school athletic meeting of modern times was that promoted by the Royal Military Academy at Woolwich, England, in 1849.

Glare-Conscious America

One person in every 6½ bought a pair of sun glasses last year, reports the newly organized Sun Glass institute, whose members produced 20,000,000 pairs in 1939.

By David O. Alber

Churches are beginning to realize the value of motion pictures and as a result arrangements have been made for Metropolitan Pictures, Inc., in Hollywood, to produce fifty 2-reel Biblical subjects during the next 12 months. All the pictures will be in Cinecolor. Purpose of the films is not only to picture religious subjects but to attract the public to the churches. About 2,000 churches are now equipped for sound films and thousands more can purchase the necessary equipment on installments.

"Swing and Sway with Sammy Kaye" has become a national byword and Kaye values the catchphrase at one million dollars. A manufacturer has just come out with a Swing and Sway gown, and you can also obtain Swing and Sway hats, shoes, rocking chairs, shirts and neckties. Kaye got the phrase quite by accident, too. An announcer used it on one of his broadcasts and it just caught on.

Jerry Colonna's success as a comedy-singer reminds Mark Warnow, the Hit Parade maestro, of the time Jerry was playing a trombone in his band. Jerry used to do his comedy singing privately, but one morning Mark arranged to slip it into a program. A CBS vice-president dropped in during rehearsal. "I'd leave that song out," he counseled Warnow. "That man is just silly, not funny." Jerry went back to trombone playing, deferring his success for a couple of years.

The record buying public is benefiting from the competitive warfare being waged by Victor and Columbia. Victor fired the opening gun early in the summer when it issued a series of black-label classics at 75 cents and $1. Columbia retaliated with a low-priced green-label series of light classics. Columbia scored again when it announced this week that its complete list of classical recordings, formerly selling at from $1 to $2, has been cut to 75 cents for a 10-inch disc, $1 for the 12-inch.

SHORTS: John Barrymore's weekly "allowance" was raised from $1,000 to $1,175 a week by his referee in bankruptcy, but the extra $175 goes to the support of his three children . . . Benay Venuta will accompany Abbott and Costello to Hollywood for their "Hour of Smiles" program late this month . . . Ida Lupino, who attracted so much attention in "They Drive By Night", moves into the star class in "Hard Luck Dame" for Warner Bros. . . . "Information Please" moves to the NBC Red network Friday, November 13th . . . George Raft has purchased an interest in the Hurricane, New York night club, and is there every night, dancing rumbas and congas.

Zeppelin's Helium Content

A modern Zeppelin requires 8,830,000 cubic feet of helium.

Between 1915 and 1929 the public authorities of Holland built or assisted in building 200,000 buildings.

Highlights & Sidelights

Muskrat Valuable

The thrifty, prolific muskrat furnishes a living for nearly 100,000 persons connected directly or indirectly with Louisiana's fur industry.

New Use for Microscope

A new use has been found for the electron microscope, by Drs. Abner Wolf, David Cowen, and Beryl Page of Columbia university. This new super-sharp microscope is able to reveal the exact location, in the cells of glands, muscles, and other tissues, of vital minerals, such as calcium and phosphorus.

Study Sun's Energy

Scientists of Massachusetts Institute of Technology have been financed for a 50-years' search and experimentation to develop a means of converting the Sun's energy into a driving force for machinery.

City of Danzig

The free "city" of Danzig covers more than 700 square miles and includes more than 16,000 farms. The population is more than 400,000.

Song Bird Club

Late in the eighties the Portland (Ore.) Song Bird club, a society for the introduction of useful song birds, was founded. This organization raised considerable money and imported many birds between 1889 and 1907. It nearly succeeded in establishing the skylark in the neighborhood of that city between 1889 and 1908. The species certainly bred in the neighborhoods of Portland, Salem and Gresham, and existed for 20 or 30 years. The bureau believes that one of these colonies is thriving at the present time.

The wisdom in life's laboratories cannot leave the hand that finds it.

Kentucky's Contribution

The granite block of stone in the Washington monument which was contributed by Kentucky bears the following inscription: "Under the auspices of Heaven and the precepts of Washington, Kentucky will be the last to give up the Union. 'United We Stand, Divided We Fall.'" The stone is placed on the inner wall on the 230-foot landing.

Dried Blood Transfusion

As a result of research work done at the Moscow Central Institute of Hematology and Blood Transfusion, a method has been developed by which blood can be dried, stored in sealed glass containers, and liquefied when needed.

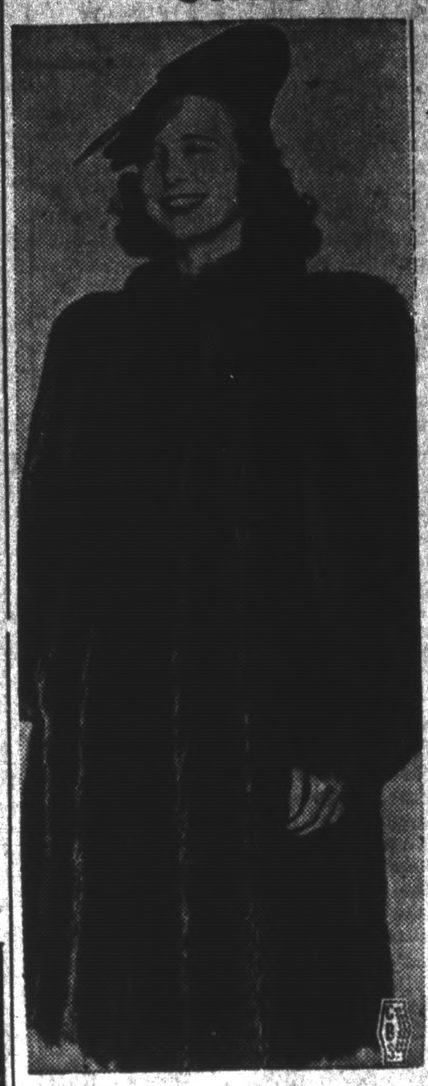

'In France's Fields'

Every American is familiar with John McCrae's World war poem "In Flanders' Fields"; but not many know that he himself was killed in 1918 and was buried in a quiet little war cemetery at Wimereux, France, where hundreds visit his grave every year.

Weed Growth

Proof of the tremendous strength of growing weeds was shown at Winnipeg, Manitoba, when a piece of lumber an inch thick, through which had grown a dandelion root, was found in a lumber yard.

STARS PREVIEW FURS

This 'coon coat of well matched skins is as warm as it looks, and comfortably tailored, too, says Gretchen Davidson, CBS star. Noteworthy features are the Peter Pan collar—always reserved for smoother furs—and inside lining sleeve gathered on an elastic at the wrist. No drafts can bother you. (I. J. Fox, New York.)

Charming little number in grey goatskin—and the lovely wearer is delectable red-headed Barbara Daly, CBS actress. The perky hat is goatskin and grey suede. Purty, ain't it?

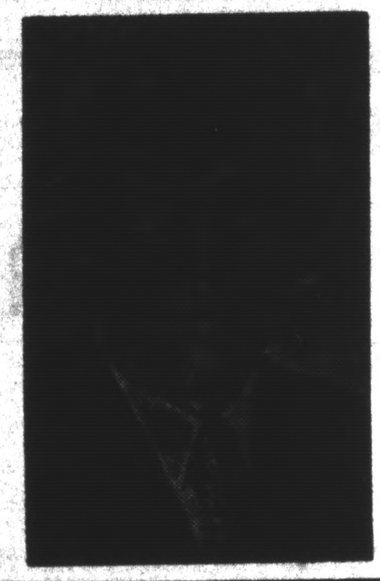

Canadians Like Eggs

The Canadian bureau of statistics estimated that Canadians lead all people of the world in the consumption of eggs. The per capita consumption is approximately 400 eggs a year.

New Tree Pruner

A new tree pruner, operating on hydraulic pressure, easily cuts limbs up to two inches thick. Extension poles enable the operator to remove a limb 20 feet from the ground.

Back-to-School Days Are Here Again!

Television Make-Up

Due to the fact that the television camera does not record red, green make-up has to be used in preparing performers for television broadcasts.

Automobile Gadget

Martin M. Collins of Danbury, Conn., has patented an emergency automobile horn sounder that blows the horn automatically when the brakes are suddenly applied.

500 Trucks for Highway

The Chinese government will place 500 motor trucks on the Kunming-Lachow-Chunking highway.

Cold Storage Eggs

Ten per cent of the total of eggs produced in the United States in recent years is estimated to have gone into cold storage.

Rope and Basket

Poland has a new thrill for visitors to Zakopane: a rope and basket passenger service from Kuznice to mountain peaks of the Carpathians, an aerial journey not to be duplicated elsewhere in eastern Europe.

Doctors Ready

The British Medical association conference states that between 40,000 and 50,000 doctors—about 80 per cent of the profession—have volunteered for war work if hostilities break out.

Ethyl Fluid Plant

More than half of the ethyl fluid used in gasoline is provided from a chemical plant at Wilmington, N. C., where bromide is extracted from sea-water.

Costliest Undressing!

Here is a pretty ballet dancer with one of the Golden Gate International Exposition's leading shows, whose "undressed" act is the most costly in the show business. She paints her entire body (the painting process is a secret) with silver leaf and spangles thrice daily at a cost of $4.75 per painting. She's featured in a spicy French revue on Treasure Island. Here she's shown partly "made up."

Oldest History Book

The world's oldest history "book" is an ancient stone tablet in the National Museum of Palermo, Sicily, which records the years from 3600 to 2700 B. C. not by dates but by mention of important events and personalities.

Workers' Gas Mask

A new oxygen mask delivering a mixture of about 50 per cent oxygen with air, to be used by mental workers as a protection against fatigue, was recently described to the American Psychological association by Dr. Arthur B. Gills of Cincinnati.

German Riviera

Don't let a quiz fan catch you on this one: Where is the German Riviera? Travelers say it is at Honnef, not far from Bonn, on the Rhine. It has the best climate in Germany and enjoys spring two weeks earlier than elsewhere in the country.

Wesley's Night Cap

Nearly 200 years ago John Wesley left his favorite white cotton night cap in an inn at Newton Abbot, England. The innkeeper's family treasured it as an heirloom, but has now sent it to the Wesley museum.

Churches of a Sinner

A tourist recently returned from Wilno in Poland reports 12 churches there all built by one man known as Pac. On his tomb is the simple inscription, "Here lies a sinner, Pac."

Monte Cristo

Mediterranean tourists often have a chance to see the isle of Monte Cristo, which is located south of Elba. Dumas, whose "Count" made it famous, once sailed round it but never landed on its soil.

Mystery of Lake's Color

A score of scientists have arrived at Ivrea, Italy, to try to solve the mystery of a lake which changed in color from blue to red overnight. Lake Sirio, one of a group of seven lakes in the Ivrea region, not only turned redder and redder hour by hour, but it also became much "stickier."

Thanks a Lot!

For donating nearly $900 to the Siamese army for the purchase of a machine gun, Sathier Nutaradasha, a prisoner in the Bangkok jail, has been thanked by the government for his "patriotic action."

New Tire Tread

George R. Nelson Sr., of Almelund, Minn., has been granted a patent for a detachable tire tread that can be taken from a tire when worn down and replaced by a new tire unit.

Tuberculosis Widespread

Tuberculosis occurs among all the races of the world and its ravages may be traced far back into history.
